

County Employee is Child Support Worker of the Year!!

Sarana Stolar received the Child Support Worker of the Year Award at the Annual Child support Training Conference.

She was presented with this award for regularly performing above the expectations of position requirements, participating in several state/county workgroups, providing new and innovative ideas in work processes and continuous inter and intra-agency cooperation.

Congratulations Sarana!